Erie Insurance makes summer in Pittsburgh seriously good with free pedicab rides, bike tune ups and live music

ERIE, Pa. (June 10, 2013) - Summers in Pittsburgh are always loaded with family-friendly activities and outdoor events, and Erie Insurance is joining the fun this season to get visitors around town, keep them entertained and help them enjoy a seriously good summer.

ERIE has partnered with Green Gears Pedicabs to offer free pedicab rides during popular, local events from June through September. Pittsburghers should be on the lookout for a fleet of nine ERIE-branded pedicabs with a "free rides" flag on the back for their chance to ride around town in style. A complete list of locations for the free pedicab rides is below.

For music lovers, Erie Insurance is a sponsor the Allegheny County Summer Concert Series featuring 27 free, live music concerts at Hartwood Acres and South Park. ERIE street teams will be on hand at select concerts - including the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra at Hartwood Acres on July 7 and David Cassidy at South Park on July 12 - to surprise and delight attendees.

Finally, ERIE has teamed up with Wu's Shaved Ice and Ted's Excellent Bike Repair to giveaway free shaved ice at South Park and bike tune-ups at the Southside Riverfront Park the last Sunday of each month in June, July and August.
